

Statement Settings False Disclosure

Altura Credit Union

E-Statements Disclosure

Withdrawing Your Consent

Your periodic statement will no longer be available through our Online Account Access System. Current viewable e-statements will continue to be available for no more than a period of 2 years from the date made available.

E-statement Withdraw of Consent Form

By withdrawing your consent to this E-Statement Disclosure, you authorize Altura Credit Union to set up your account to receive physical periodic statements by mail; you agree and understand the following:

- This consent is to receive your regular periodic statements by mail from Altura Credit Union.
- You have the right to withdraw your consent to receive your periodic statement electronically. You understand you will not receive electronic statements in addition to paper statements. You may have one or the other free of charge, however; if you wish to receive additional copies, there is a $5.00 per statement fee.
- You have the right to re-subscribe to receive your periodic statement electronically at no charge. Use Online Banking or contact the credit union to re-subscribe to E-Statements.
- It is your responsibility to inform the credit union of changes to your mailing address. You can change your mailing address in Online Banking, by calling the credit union, in person, or using the secure messaging system in Online Banking. Never include confidential information in a standard email.